

Withdrawing from the UA

Withdrawal from the University means a student is no longer enrolled for any courses for the term.

When a student withdraws before the first day of classes, all refundable charges for the term are cancelled. Students who officially withdraw after the first day of class may qualify for a partial cancellation of tuition and fees, based on the date of withdrawal.

Students must contact their advisor or the Enhanced Learning Center to withdraw from regular academic sessions.

Withdrawal Dates

Check the official withdrawal deadline dates by going to:

<http://www.uark.edu/registrar/classes/Regdefs.html#withdraw>

A $45 withdrawal fee is assessed for withdrawals that occur during the regular academic term. View the fee adjustment schedule at:

<http://treasurer.uark.edu/withdraw.asp>

Payment Plan Information

Payment plans are available in three, four, and five month options. View complete information at:

<http://treasurer.uark.edu/installplan.asp>

1098-T Information

The University of Arkansas provides 1098-T tax information at:

The University of Arkansas is not authorized to give tax advice.

FERPA

Any student who wishes to restrict the release of his or her directory or public information must complete the FERPA Directory Restrictions form found in the Student Center under the Personal Information section.

Students may elect to restrict all or part of their information from release to campus directories or third parties.

Please see the Registrar's Office for additional information about restricting your information.
