

ONE BOOK ONE COMMUNITY

Events Connected to Reading and Discussing The Devil's Highway, by Luis Urrea.

Tuesday, September 15

Noon – Multicultural Center, ARKU

Hispanic Heritage Month Kick Off: Proclamations and Discussion Panel on Immigration

Tuesday, September 22

5 p.m. - Multicultural Center, ARKU

Latin American Studies and HHM Border Studies Film Series - "Lonestar" (1996)
(Discussion facilitators: Kirstin Erickson and Steve Bell)

Friday, September 25,

9 p.m. – 1 a.m. - ARKU

Friday Night Live – Latin Soul Night

Thursday, October 1

5 p.m. - Multicultural Center, ARKU

Latin American Studies and HHM Border Studies Film Series - "Sangre de mi Sangre/ Blood of my Blood" (2008)
(Discussion facilitators: Sergio Villalobos and Steve Bell)

Thursday, October 1

5 p.m. (Session 1) West Street Annex

The Devil's Highway Professional Development Series for Teachers
(Collaboration NWA Writing Project and the Brown Chair in Literacy)

Saturday, October 17

9 & 11 a.m. (Sessions 2 and 3) Peabody Hall

Meetings are open to anyone but geared towards teachers
If interested, RSVP to Jake Edwards at jte02@uark.edu
Those interested can attend one, two, or all sessions

Monday, October 5

11:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m. - ARKU 308SW

Latin American Studies and Community Read Border Studies Brown Bag
Dr. Kirstin Erickson presents "Envisioning la Frontera: Art, Immigration and Culture on the U.S.-Mexico Border."
Dr. Erickson, associate professor of anthropology, has studied and written a book about the Yaquis of Sonora, Mexico, and teaches classes on the U.S.-Mexico borderlands.

Tuesday, October 6

11 a.m. – 2 p.m. - Connections Lounge,
ARKU

Plaza de las Americas

Wednesday, October 7

6:30 p.m. - Pomfret Great Room

"All the Federales Say"--Popular Music of the Borderlands."
Discussion of music, literature, artists, and films led by Dr. Robert Cochran
Dr. Cochran is a professor of English and an expert on southern music, culture and folklore.

Monday, October 12

12-1:30 p.m. - Old Main Library Room 210

30 Days: Immigration Episode
Video and Discussion moderated by Dr. Kevin Fitzpatrick
Pizza and Refreshments to be served
If interested, RSVP to kfitzpa@uark.edu

Sunday, October 18

2 p.m. - Fayetteville Library, Walker Reading
Room

"The Crossing" by James E. Garcia and other plays. Actors perform staged readings of short plays showing the human side of immigration. A co-production with TheatreSquared. (Bob Ford, Visiting Assistant Professor, Department of Drama)

Wednesday, October 21

12:30 p.m. - SCEN 604

Flora & Fauna on The Devil's Highway
Dr. Kim Smith, University Professor of Biological Sciences, will discuss the physical environment of the Sonoran Desert, the setting of the Devil's Highway.

Wednesday, October 21

6 p.m. - Holcombe Hall, Classroom

Walk in my Economy
Simulation Activity to understand the economic roots of Mexican/Arkansan immigration.
Kathy Lemons, retired Fayetteville High School Teacher

Thursday, October 22

5 p.m. - Multicultural Center, ARKU

Latin American Studies and HHM Border Studies Film Series - "La Misma Luna/Under the Same Moon" (2008)
(Discussion facilitators: Elizabeth Young, Sergio Villalobos, and Greg Buchanan)

Tuesday, October 27

12-1 p.m. - School of Law, Room 326

Brown Bag – Immigration Basics: General Information and Common Misconceptions (FAQs and Hot Topics in Immigration). Professor Elizabeth Young, Director of the Immigration Law Clinic, School of Law & Roy Petty, Petty Law Office, Fayetteville