

Interior Design is a major in Bumpers College that requires courses that are only offered at the U of A and that are designed to build one upon the other. This program has a studio sequence that takes eight semesters. Every semester you do not start this sequence prolongs your graduation date. The following courses will transfer in this major if you are taking academic skills classes or you are going part time and additional semesters are already scheduled into your plans. If you have questions or concerns, please see an advisor.
