

University of Arkansas Razorback Marching Band

Student Leadership Application

Student leadership is the foundation of our success. We are looking for experienced marching band members that are interested in becoming effective leaders by developing their own positive teaching style and leadership ability. All student leadership positions are available to anyone who has participated in the RMB at least one semester.

Section leaders assist with the preparation of all music performed by the RMB and work to establish and maintain high standards of tone quality, intonation and musicianship. Drill captains help other members improve their marching fundamentals and assist in teaching and cleaning drill.
