BIOL 3863: General Ecology

Ecological principles and concepts; environmental factors and interactions that determine the distribution and abundance of organisms

This course is offered in the Fall and Spring semesters. Dr. Evans-White teaches the fall semester.